

4th ANNUAL DRUM MAJOR WORKSHOPS

Old Bridge, NJ Saturday & Sunday, 21 & 22 April 2007
Location to be determined, CT Saturday & Sunday, 28 & 29 April 2007

INSTRUCTOR

Drum Major Billy Jordan, Dumbarton, Scotland, UK

Returning once again to teach at the spring seminar, DM Billy Jordan brings a level of instruction hard to find. An instructor of all levels of ability, from street band to the competition level DM, he has the innate knack to connect and enrich the students knowledge and talent. Billy has been active as a drum major for over twenty years, and has experience in both the military and civilian arenas. Serving with the 1st Battalion, Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders, Billy moved through the ranks; first becoming the regiment's drum sergeant and was then appointed Drum Major upon completion of his Army courses.

Outside of the Argyll's, Bill has been teaching for over ten years both in Scotland and more recently in Germany, and the U.S., his students continually place in major championships, one of which won the Junior World Champion at the World's in August 2005. Billy himself has made Champion of Champions in the West Coast & Glasgow Branch of the RSPBA, for the 12th year in a row, consistently placing within top rankings in all contests.
